BARRETT. In loving remembrance of my devoted husband and our kind father, DENNIS BAR-RETT, who died April 16, 1890. Ab, vacant is the fireside chair,
Ab, vacant is the fireside chair,
A smile that won us is not there;
Prom the door and house, from the porch and yer'd
The echo of your voice is gone,
And we who linger only know
How much we lost seven years ago.

BY HIS WIFE AND CHILDREN.

BARREIT. In loving remembrance of our kind and affectionate grandfather, DENNIS BARRETT, who died seven years today, April 16, 1890.

Loved in life, remembered in death.

BY MAMIE AND NORA O'DONNELL.

You are not forgotten, Willie, dear,
Nor never will you be;
As long as life and memory last
We will remember thee.
BY MOTHER AND FATHER.

KENNEDY. Sacred to the memory of my dea: daughter and our sister, MARY A. KENNEDY, who deperted this life two years ago today, April 16, 1895. Goae, but not forgotten.
BY HER FAMILY.
